

License Application: Temporary Expansion of License

Definition: If you have an On-Sale Liquor, Wine, or 3.2 Beer license, you may apply for a Temporary Expansion of License which includes any or all the following. Each license is good for up to two days.

1. Entertainment not allowed with your current license. You may apply for up to 12 days in any twelve-month period.
2. Late Hours Entertainment after 2:00 a.m. You may apply for up to three licenses in any twelve-month period. This can be indoor only for businesses located in the Downtown Improvement District (DID). There can be no alcohol service or drinking during the late hours.
3. Premises directly next to your licensed premises. You may apply for up to 12 days in any twelve-month period. You may need Short Term Food Permits and Event Food Sponsor Permit:
 - a. if food is prepared or served, to sell or give away, in your expanded area or
 - b. if drinks are garnished or poured on ice in your expanded area.

The Event Food Sponsor Permit application must be submitted two weeks before your event. The fee is waived if your business is the only vendor. If you only have bottle or tap service, (no ice or garnish) you do not need any food permits.

Additional licenses may be approved for special events. If you have questions, contact your License Inspector.
