

9th annual minneapolis trans equity summit

Building Trans Power

10 a.m. -7 p.m.
Friday September 16, 2022
Hybrid (Minneapolis College and Zoom)

9th Annual trans equity summit

about the summit

The Summit is free and open to the public, and we encourage anyone interested in furthering trans equity to attend. Programming includes:

Opening keynote • Closing panel • Performances • Workshops • Healing and aesthetics offerings Career and resource fair

Register (in English, Spanish, Somali, or Hmong) and get more information at minneapolismn.gov/transequitysummit

Announcing our keynote: louie ortiz-fonseca

Born and raised in Philadelphia, louie ortiz-fonseca (they/he) is a queer creative and storyteller living with HIV. louie is the creator of Gran Varones, a digital project that highlights LGBTQ pop culture history and community storytelling through a Black/Latinx lens. louie also works in partnership with young people living with HIV to combat stigma, and hosts a YouTube series for LGBTQ youth, Kikis with Louie.