Crime Victim's Rights

- 1. You have the right to apply for financial help for losses resulting from a violent crime. This assistance does not cover property losses. For application and information, call (651) 201-7300. If you feel your rights as a victim have been violated, call the Crime Victims Justice Unit at (651) 201-7310. Outside the Twin Cities area, call 1-800-247-0390; TDD: (651) 201-4827; www. ojp.dps.mn.gov
- 2. You have the right to request that the law enforcement agency withhold public access to data revealing your identity. The law enforcement agency will decide if this is possible.
- 3. You have the right if an offender is charged, to be informed of and participate in the prosecution process, including the right to request restitution (money court ordered from the offender and paid to the victim).

Domestic Violence Information

IF YOU ARE THE VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, the city or county attorney may file a criminal complaint. You have the right to be notified if prosecution is declined or criminal charges dismissed. You have the right to go to court and request an Order for Protection. The order could include the following:

- 1. Restrain abuser from further abuse.
- 2. Direct abuser to leave your household.
- 3. Prevent abuser from entering your residence, school, business, or place of employment.
- 4. Award custody of or visitation with your minor children.
- 5. Direct abuser to pay support to you and the children if the abuser has a legal obligation.

For additional information, to get an Order of Protection or talk to a police investigator, prosecutor, or advocate, call the Hennepin County Domestic Abuse Service Center at (612) 348-5073. Hennepin County Government Center, A level.
